

Impiger builds world-class enterprise mobile applications that helps you meet your business objectives.

Impiger's mobility expertise

Whether you're a small company with a big idea or a large corporation lacking specific skills and/or resources, we've architected more than 250 B2B, B2C & B2E mobile applications. Platform expertise: iOS, Android, Windows and Blackberry, with solutions in Retail, Financial, Healthcare, Manufacturing, Transportation and many more.

About Impiger

Impiger Technologies is a world-class, enterprise software product engineering company specializing in Mobile Application Development, Cloud Applications, Microsoft Technology Solutions, Web Technology and Telecom Services. We help enterprises improve business efficiency, productivity, and grow revenue. We offer a comprehensive set of, cost effective services from prototype to production and everything in-between. We've developed more than 500 applications; our portfolio includes new product development, product extensions, application/systems integration and workflow automation to name a few.

Impiger employs over 300 professionals spread across the globe. For well over a decade Impiger has been delighting customers; whether it's a small company with a big idea or a large corporations lacking specific skills and/or resources.

www.impigertech.com

500+
projects

125+
customers

300+
Employees

5
Locations

Strategy and consulting

We explore all possible tangents of an idea so that it meets all your business needs. The creative hoops we put the idea through are designed to flesh out the best solution to turn your idea into a reality.

Enterprise mobile apps

Unlock the full potential of your business with our custom mobility solutions, ERP mobile extensions, business analytics dashboards, sales automation solutions, and many more.

Mobile App Engineering

We have the right people with the right mix of experience who constantly look for innovative solution to challenges and whatever app you need, Impiger can help you bring your mobile innovation to life.

Mobile app porting

Impiger can help port your existing application on any one mobile or desktop platform to iOS (iPhone and iPad), Android mobiles and tablets, Windows mobile, and Blackberry devices.

Mobile app testing

Impiger's comprehensive practices from rigorous testing of target devices, network infrastructure, to manual and automated testing methods, your app will have flawless execution and a desired user experience of across all platforms.

Platforms

iOS, Android, Windows Mobile, Blackberry

What our customers think

"My Impiger project management team is fantastic. They're responsive. They are very organized. The schedule works like clockwork. They delivered on time."

Founder, SquaredSky , (Bookmarking Platform)